Benson Briefs More GOPsters On Ag Setup

New Program Slated To Be Detailed To Congress On Monday

WASHINGTON (AP)—The new suit in which the administration hopes to dress up its farm program was modeled for additional tailoring today before Republican members of the Senate Agriculture Committee.

Secretary of agriculture Benson arranged to meet with the senators, as he did with House members yesterday, to discuss with them the proposals he will suggest that President Eisenhower recommend to Congress in a special message Monday.

He also arranged to meet later with Senators Ellender (D-La.) and Aiken (R-Vt.), the Democratic chairman and senior Republican on the committee, before flying today to Key West, Fla., to make his recommendations to the President.

Ellender, saying Benson had invited him to discuss the program in advance, said, "I'm trying to keep this farm legislation out of politics."

But Chairman Cooley (D-NC) of the House Agriculture Committee, soured at Benson's private discussion with House committee Republicans yesterday, accused the secretary of wrapping the proposed farm program "in a shroud of partisan politics."

AS REPORTED after the get-together, the main theme of the administration program is expected to center on the "soil bank" idea of taking land out of production and using up existing crop surpluses.

Lawmakers attending yesterday's meeting were pledged to secrecy, but word coming out of the meeting pointed to this broad outline of tentative plans:

1. A proposal to cut down by as much as 20 per cent the currently allowed acreage of surplus crops with farmers receiving in return for their acreage reduction a certificate equal to all or part of the value of the crops the retired land would produce.

Benson said, however, that a figure of 20 per cent for the planting cut had never been mentioned.

Farmers would be entitled to exchange the certificate for farm surplus commodities now held in government storage for use as they see fit.

According to those attending the meeting, no suggestion was offered by Benson for permitting farmers to exchange their certificates for cash as a direct federal subsidy. Presumably, however, a cash payment might be one alternative.

2. A "soil bank" plan based on long-range conservation practices and aimed at the prevention of future surpluses. The cost of such a program, was it reported, would be anybody's guess.

One part of the "soil bank" proposal envisages a range reserve whereby land would be put to grass and trees, with the land so reserved withheld from all production and pasture use.

Another part calls for a conservation reserve of surplus-producing cropland, with provision for all or part of it to be returned to production in periods of shortage as determined by the secretary of agriculture.

3. Stepped up disposal of existing crop surpluses through increased use of government-held commodities for charitable, school and disaster uses, and increased trade of U. S. farm surpluses for strategic materials.

Featherston smashed into the back of the cruiser, either in an attempt to knock it out of the way or because he could not stop in time to prevent hitting it. Judge To Ignore Segregation Rule

CINCINNATI (AP)—U. S. District Judge John H. Druffel announced today that he will "ignore" a ruling of the U. S. Court of Appeals, sixth circuit, ordering him to take action to end what it held to be segregation in the grade schools in Hillsboro.

The appellate court only a few hours earlier had reversed Judge Druffel's ruling of last Jan. 28 in which he refused to enjoin the Hillsboro board of education from establishing school zones.

Those zones, it was contended by the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People and others, set up segregation.

In today's decision, the circuit court ordered Druffel to frame a decision "which will provide for the immediate admittance to school on a non-segregated basis of school age Negro children."

Because of such districting, some Negro children have been prevented from attending Webster and Washington grade schools.

Several Negro children have appeared at the schools each morning, and, on being denied admission to the school rooms, have returned to their homes. The practice was started last year.

The Hillsboro school board denied segregation was being practiced. It said it was building new schools and enlarging another, and that when they were finished they would be open to all children.

WHILE SOME Negro children are admitted to Webster and Washington schools, others have been sent the all-Negro Lincoln school.

For the most part, Negroes of Hillsboro live in two widely-separated communities, the larger being close to Lincoln school. Negro leaders have complained that in some instances their children had been forced under the districting plan to walk from their homes right past the all-white Washington school in order to reach the all-Negro Lincoln school.

They also complained that at least one white child lived in the Lincoln school district but was not required to attend classes there.

The districting setup was installed after Negro leaders started their campaign to end segregation in the grade schools. No segregation has been practiced in the high school. About one-half dozen Negro youngsters were assigned to Webster school under the new districting plan.

The court action was brought by seven mothers of school children, who sought to enjoin the Hillsboro Board of Education from rezoning school districts. They were supported by the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People.

On Jan. 28, 1955, Judge Druffel in an opinion refused to enjoin the board. He said the board is "officially on record as favoring complete integration," and pointed to the building program underway in Hillsboro.

In its 2 to 1 opinion today, the appellate court said: "On consideration whereof it is now here ordered and adjudged by this court that this cause be and the same is hereby remanded to the district court with instructions to retain jurisdiction and after prompt notice to the parties and an opportunity for hearing to frame a decision which will provide for the immediate admittance to school on a non-segregated basis of school age Negro children not now in any Hillsboro public school and which will further provide for the end of all racial segregation in the Hillsboro public schools on or before the commencement of the school year in September, 1956."

Woman Driver Pleads Innocent

PORTSMOUTH (AP)—A plea of innocent was entered yesterday by Ethel Stacy, 26, of Newport, Ky., to two charges of manslaughter in the Christmas Eve traffic deaths of two men.

The accident happened on U. S. 52 at nearby Franklin Furnace when two cars collided after a woman driver pulled out in front of one of them, state highway patrolmen said. Miss Stacy was bound to the grand jury.

Sailor's Hearing Being Delayed

CLEVELAND (AP)—Police Judge Joseph Stearns yesterday postponed until Jan. 19 a preliminary hearing for William Lester Miller, 24-year-old sailor charged with first degree murder.

Miller is accused of the fatal beating of Carol Martin, 21. Police said the young man admitted he beat the young woman, stripped off her clothing and left her lying in a baseball park.

Following a spectacular chase of many miles, at speeds up to 100 miles an hour, and repeated attempts to wreck police and deputy sheriff's cruisers, Robert Featherston, 17, of Parrott's Station, who recently escaped from the Boys Industrial School at Lancaster, was finally halted and arrested on the CCC Highway, 8 miles east of Washington C. H. shortly after 2 A. M. Thursday.

During the wild chase Deputy Sheriff Lawrence Mickle fired three shots into the rear of the fleeing car in an effort to puncture the gasoline tank, two of the bullets striking the trunk and one the rear bumper and ricocheted into the tail light.

It was not until the police cruiser suddenly, that Featherston, in a stolen car, bumped the back end of the police cruiser, causing the hood of the stolen car to fly up, obscuring his view, that he halted.

Deputy Sheriff Robert McArthur quickly leaped from the car and arrested Featherston before he could escape.

During part of the wild ride out the highway, the police cruiser and the stolen car driven by Featherston were locked together while traveling 100 miles an hour. This continued for a half mile or more, police said.

One big truck took the ditch to avoid a head-on crash with the speeding cars, and two car drivers also swung into the ditch to avoid being struck.

FEATHERSTON later confessed to Sheriff Orland Hays that he had stolen three automobiles and a truck in 48 hours, one of the cars being that owned by Howard Griffiths of Greenfield, parked at the curb on East Temple Street here.

Featherston had abandoned a pickup truck here he had stolen in Lancaster and, after driving Griffiths' Pontiac to Eaton, he abandoned it there, stole a Chevrolet, drove it until the gas tank was empty, then stole a second Chevrolet in Eaton which car he was driving when arrested, he told Sheriff Hays.

Featherston, the youth arrested by Sheriff Hays when found under the floor of his parents' home at Parrott's Station last September and sent to the Boys' Industrial School on a breaking and entering charge, had told Deputy Sheriff Robert McArthur at that time that he could never arrest him again.

Featherston was in a car parked in front of the Marlin Kessler home on the Jeffersonville Road, while Deputy Sheriff McArthur and special deputy Lawrence Mickle, were on night patrol duty.

Apparently he had just returned to the car with two five gallon cans (Please Turn to Page Sixteen)

President Tells Of Progress He Has Made

Congress Gets Review Of His 3-Year Service In White House

WASHINGTON (AP)—In his State of the Union message to Congress today, President Eisenhower gave a review of progress he said had been made during his three years in the White House. In summary he said:

"Our country is at peace. Our security posture commands respect. A spiritual vigor marks our national life. Our economy, approaching the 400 billion dollar mark, is at an unparalleled level of prosperity. The national income is more widely and fairly distributed than ever before. The number of Americans at work has reached an all-time high. As a people, we are achieving even higher standards of living—earning more, producing more, consuming more, building more and investing more than ever before.

"Virtually all sectors of our society are sharing in these good times. Our farm families, if we act wisely, imaginatively and promptly to strengthen our present farm programs, can also look forward to sharing equitably in the prosperity they have helped to create.

"War in Korea ended 2½ years ago. The collective security system has been powerfully strengthened. Our defenses have been reinforced at sharply reduced costs. Programs to expand world trade and to harness the atom for the betterment of mankind have been carried forward. Our economy has been freed from governmental wage and price controls. Inflation has been halted; the cost of living stabilized.

"Government spending has been cut by more than 10 billion dollars. Nearly 300,000 positions have been eliminated from the federal payroll. Taxes have been substantially reduced. A balanced budget is in prospect. Social security has been extended to 10 million more Americans and unemployment insurance to 4 million more. Unprecedented advances in civil rights have been made. The long-standing and deep-seated problems of agriculture have been forthrightly attacked.

"This record of progress has been accomplished with a self-imposed caution against unnecessary and unwelcome interference in the private affairs of our people, of their communities and of the several states.

"If we of the executive and legislative branches, keeping this caution ever in mind, address ourselves to the business of the year before us — and to the unfinished business of last year — with resolution, the outlook is bright with promise."

The President said many measures "of great national importance," which he recommended to Congress last year should be adopted now. He mentioned school and highway construction, health and immigration matters, water resources, foreign trade policy, amendment of the Taft-Hartley labor relations law, extension of the wage-hour law to additional groups, occupational safety legislation, and construction of an atomic-powered merchant ship to tour the world as an illustration of atomic energy's peacetime uses.

Turning to world affairs, Eisenhower said the Geneva conference of foreign ministers last October "demonstrated conclusively that the Soviet leaders are not yet willing to create the indispensable conditions for a secure and lasting peace."

Nonetheless, Eisenhower said, the East-West conflict "has taken on a new complexion."

"Communist tactics against the free nations have shifted in emphasis from reliance on violence and the threat of violence to re-

Super-Market Barred By City Zoning Code

Application of Floyd Drummond of Bainbridge, implement dealer, and the Schaefer Super-Market Co. for permission of the Zoning Board of Appeals to make changes in the Drummond building on Highland Avenue and open a super-market there, was turned down Wednesday night following a lengthy hearing before the board.

Several attorneys were there and spoke for and against the proposal.

W. S. Paxson and Attorney Andrew White of Columbus, appeared for Drummond and the Schaefer Co. Both spoke in support of the application and outlined what was planned in connection with several proposed changes.

Attorneys Ray Maddox and Charles Hire, representing some of the adjacent property owners, opposed granting the request of the applicants on the grounds the proposal would depreciate property values and be objectionable to the property owners in the residential zone surrounding the Drummond building, which for years has been used for farm machinery store.

A petition bearing 15 names, was presented. It opposed the changes sought. Several of the numerous property owners also protested change in the building and occupancy by the super-market.

Approximately 25 persons attended the hearing. All appeal board members were present — Chairman George Pensyl, Dr. W. H. Limes, Mrs. Gilbert Adams, Ronald Cornwell and City Manager James F. Parkinson.

Following the hearing the board deliberated on the matter and within a short time announced a unanimous vote turning down the request of the petitioners.

Car Splattered By Yellow Paint

Vandalism Here Linked To Strike

Apparently vandalism in connection with strike of workers against the Westinghouse Electric Corp., Columbus has been extended into Washington C. H., where an automobile owned by William Riley, 324 East Paint Street, was pelted with eggs containing yellow paint while the car was parked in front of Riley's home on Paint Street across from the school for the night.

Riley, who is employed at the Westinghouse plant, had left his car parked in front of his home when he returned home from work Tuesday night, and when he went to get the car Wednesday morning, he found it splattered with yellow paint.

He summoned the police, who investigated, and found that eggs filled with yellow paint, had been hurled against the car, apparently from a car as it passed the parked car.

Part of one egg with some paint clinging to it, was taken as evidence, but the investigating officer Thursday said several eggs had struck the car.

The vandalism here was similar to that reported at other places during the strike.

Riley said that when he left the Westinghouse plant Wednesday, he said to some of the pickets on strike duty: "Thanks for the paint job, boys!"

One of them shouted back: "Westinghouse will buy you a new paint job, but next time you'll need a new car."

It was stated that low bid for a paint job was just under $90.

Outside of the cruisers making the rounds on Paint Street a number of times during the night, so far as known no extra precautions are being taken to guard against further vandalism.

Just what lines the police investigation has taken, or will take, remained obscure.

Riley said he had no intention of quitting his job and added that he had been going into the plant at Columbus without serious trouble.

He admitted he had some suspicions regarding the paint-egg throwing, but he mentioned no names.

There were two big splashes of the yellow paint on his dark blue Mercury sedan, one just above the windshield and the other on the curve of the top at the back. From these big splashed smaller spots of paint covered the side, the top of the car like polka dots.

Riley said he tried to rub off the yellow paint and found that it appeared to have eaten into the car's original paint in several places.

Westinghouse Due To Announce Reply

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Federal mediators and union officials today awaited a decision by the Westinghouse Electric Corp. on a proposal aimed at ending a nationwide strike now in its 81st day.

The AFL-CIO International United Electrical Workers Union last night accepted a suggestion from Joseph F. Finnegan, head of the Mediation and Conciliation Service, that a three-man board be appointed to consider points in dispute and make a recommendation for further negotiation.

The opinion of the board would not be binding. Each side would select one member and Finnegan would choose a chairman.

New Aerotrain Making Debut

Pennsy, NYC Lines Display Latest Flyer

NEW YORK (AP)—The revolutionary, new, lightweight "Aerotrain" built by General Motors Corp. makes its formal debut today on two railroads.

A thousand miles apart, two separate units of the train, heralded by GM President Harlow H. Curtice as a "new concept" in railroading, appear on demonstration runs.

The New York Central Railroad will show one unit on the 283.5-mile trip from Chicago to Detroit. In the afternoon, the Pennsylvania Railroad puts the other unit through its paces on a run of 216.8 miles from Washington, D. C., to Newark, N. J.

The GM train, a sleek, 10-coach job of aluminum and steel pulled by a jet-nosed diesel especially styled for it, is the latest entry in the field of lightweight trains. Three other manufacturers are making their own versions of what they think the passenger train of the future should be.

All of these trains are aimed at one goal: licking the chronic railroad passenger deficit which was $669 million in 1954, the latest figure available.

THE TRAIN IS 50 per cent lighter than conventional trains, 60 per cent less costly to build and 60 per cent cheaper to maintain.

GM said it could carry its 400 passengers between New York and Chicago in 10 hours on $125 worth of diesel fuel and could cruise at 100 miles per hour.

Like other lightweight trains, it is low-slung. Its center of gravity is only 45 inches above the rails. Baggage is stowed underneath the floor as in buses. But the floor is almost as high as on a regular train, permitting better viewing.

Zanesville Cafe Leveled By Fire

ZANESVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Fire destroyed a downtown restaurant in Zanesville early today, routing 30 persons and causing damage estimated at $100,000.

The Casino restaurant went up in flames, leaving only the walls standing.

Firemen battled the blaze at least three hours. No injuries were reported.

Robert Mattingly, the manager, gave the loss estimated.

No Tax Cut Seen As Being Assured

Outlook Bright President Says

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today the budget will be in balance this fiscal year and next. He declared, however, a tax cut would be justifiable only if it would not put the government into the red again.

Eisenhower told Congress the nation's outlook is "bright with promise" even though Soviet leaders have shown they "are not yet willing to create the indispensable conditions for a secure and lasting peace."

In his annual State of the Union message, Eisenhower declared Russia has shifted from "violence, and the threat of violence to reliance on division, enticement and duplicity."

To meet the Russian threat, the President called, among other things, for a stepped-up foreign aid program and asked Congress "to grant limited authority to make longer term commitments for assistance to such projects, to be fulfilled from appropriations to be made in future fiscal years."

Eisenhower's legislative program also called for:

1. A $25 BILLION program of federal aid to highways such as Congress failed to approve at the last session. Eisenhower suggested "an adequate plan of financing," rather than insisting on the long term borrowing program which caused the highway plan to bog down last year.

2. Farm legislation, including a soil bank program as part of "a many-sided assault on the stubborn problems of surpluses, prices, costs and markets." The program will be detailed Monday.

3. A five-year program of federal aid to school building. This, too, will be outlined in greater detail in a later message.

4. A two-year sum clearance program calling for 35,000 public housing units in each of the two years.

5. Creation of a bipartisan commission to investigate charges that in some localities Negroes are being denied the right to vote.

6. Statehood for Hawaii—Something the President has repeatedly asked and Congress has refused to approve. Eisenhower said he hoped "progress toward statehood" for Alaska also could be made at this session. Hawaii generally considered to be Republican, Alaska Democratic.

7. Revision of the immigration law so the number of persons admitted to this country each year could be based on the 1950 census rather than that of 1900. Eisenhower also asked amendment of the 1952 Refugee Relief Act so more immigrants can come from Greece and Italy and from the ranks of Iron Curtain escapes.

IN HIS MESSAGE, read by clerks to Congress while the President continued recuperation in Key West, Fla., from his heart attack, Eisenhower declared:

"I expect the budget to be in balance during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1956.

"I shall propose a balanced budget for the next fiscal year ending June 30, 1957."

The President said present "burdensome" taxes "should be reduced when we prudently can."

He added, however, "under conditions of high peacetime prosperity, such as now exist, we can never justify going further into debt to give ourselves a tax cut at the expense of our children."

"So," Eisenhower said, "in the present state of our financial affairs, I believe a tax cut can be deemed justifiable only when it will not unbalance the budget, a budget which makes provision for some reduction, even though modest, in our national debt."

As expected, he asked Congress again to extend the Defense Production Act. He also renewed a request (Please Turn to Page Sixteen)

Judge To Ignore Segregation Rule

CINCINNATI (AP)—U. S. District
Judge John H. Druffel announced today that he will "ignore" a ruling of the U. S. Court of Appeals, sixth circuit, ordering him to take action to end what it held to be segregation in the grade schools in Hillsboro.

The appellate court only a few hours earlier had reversed Judge Druffel's ruling of last Jan. 28 in which he refused to enjoin the Hillsboro board of education from establishing school zones.

Those zones, it was contended by the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People and others, set up segregation.

In today's decision, the circuit court ordered Druffel to frame a decision "which will provide for the immediate admittance to school on a non-segregated basis of school age Negro children."

Because of such districting, some Negro children have been prevented from attending Webster and Washington grade schools.

Several Negro children have appeared at the schools each morning, and, on being denied admission to the school rooms, have returned to their homes. The practice was started last year.

The Hillsboro school board denied segregation was being practiced. It said it was building new schools and enlarging another, and that when they were finished they would be open to all children.

WHILE SOME Negro children are admitted to Webster and Washington schools, others have been sent the all-Negro Lincoln school.

For the most part, Negroes of Hillsboro live in two widely-separated communities, the larger being close to Lincoln school. Negro leaders have complained that in some instances their children had been forced under the districting plan to walk from their homes right past the all-white Washington school in order to reach the all-Negro Lincoln school.

They also complained that at least one white child lived in the Lincoln school district but was not required to attend classes there.

The districting setup was installed after Negro leaders started their campaign to end segregation in the grade schools. No segregation has been practiced in the high school. About one-half dozen Negro youngsters were assigned to Webster school under the new districting plan.

has been powerfully strengthened.
Our defenses have been reinforced at sharply reduced costs. Programs to expand world trade and to harness the atom for the betterment of mankind have been carried forward. Our economy has been freed from governmental wage and price controls. Inflation has been halted;
the cost of living stabilized.

"Government spending has been cut by more than 10 billion dollars.
Nearly 300,000 positions have been eliminated from the federal payroll. Taxes have been substantially reduced. A balanced budget is in prospect. Social security has been extended to 10 million more Americans and unemployment insurance to 4 million more. Unprecedented advances in civil rights have been made. The long-standing and deep-seated problems of agriculture have been forthrightly attacked.

"This record of progress has been accomplished with a self-imposed caution against unnecessary and unwise interference in the private affairs of our people, of their communities and of the several states.

"If we of the executive and legislative branches, keeping this caution ever in mind, address ourselves to the business of the year before us — and to the unfinished business of last year — with resolution, the outlook is bright with promise."

The President said many measures "of great national importance," which he recommended to Congress last year should be adopted now. He mentioned school and highway construction, health and immigration matters, water resources, foreign trade policy, amendment of the Taft-Hartley labor relations law, extension of the wage-hour law to additional groups, occupational safety legislation, and construction of an atomic-powered merchant ship to tour the world as an illustration of atomic energy's peacetime uses.

Turning to world affairs, Eisenhower said the Geneva conference of foreign ministers last October "demonstrated conclusively that the Soviet leaders are not yet willing to create the indispensable conditions for a secure and lasting peace."

Nonetheless, Eisenhower said, the East-West conflict "has taken on a new complexion."

"Communist tactics against the free nations have shifted in emphasis from reliance on violence and the threat of violence to re-

Car Splattered By Yellow Paint

Vandalism Here
Linked To Strike

Apparently vandalism in connection with strike of workers against the Westinghouse Electric Corp., Columbus has been extended into Washington C. H., where an automobile owned by William Riley, 324 East Paint Street, was pelted with eggs containing yellow paint while the car was parked in front of Riley's home on Paint Street across from the school for the night.

Riley, who is employed at the Westinghouse plant, had left his car parked in front of his home when he returned home from work Tuesday night, and when he went to get the car Wednesday morning, he found it splattered with yellow paint.

He summoned the police, who investigated, and found that eggs filled with yellow paint, had been hurled against the car, apparently from a car as it passed the parked car.

Part of one egg with some paint clinging to it, was taken as evidence, but the investigating officer Thursday said several eggs had struck the car.

The vandalism here was similar to that reported at other places during the strike.

Riley said that when he left the Westinghouse plant Wednesday, he said to some of the pickets on strike duty: "Thanks for the paint job, boys!"

One of them shouted back:
"Westinghouse will buy you a new paint job, but next time you'll need a new car."

It was stated that low bid for a paint job was just under $90.

Outside of the cruisers making the rounds on Paint Street a number of times during the night, so far as known no extra precautions are being taken to guard against further vandalism.

Just what lines the police investigation has taken, or will take, remained obscure.

Riley said he had no intention of quitting his job and added that he had been going into the plant at Columbus without serious trouble.

He admitted he had some suspicions regarding the paint-egg throwing, but he mentioned no names.

There were two big splashes of the yellow paint on his dark blue Mercury sedan, one just above the windshield and the other on the curve of the top at the back. From these big splashed smaller spots of paint covered the side, the top of the car like polkadots.

Riley said he tried to rub off the yellow paint and found that it appeared to have eaten into the car's original paint in several places.

Westinghouse Due To Announce Reply

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Federal mediators and union officials today awaited a decision by the Westinghouse Electric Corp. on a proposal aimed at ending a nationwide strike now in its 81st day.

The AFL-CIO International United Electrical Workers Union last night accepted a suggestion from Joseph F. Finnegan, head of the Mediation and Conciliation Service, that a three-man board be appointed to consider points in dispute and make a recommendation for further negotiation.

The opinion of the board would not be binding. Each side would select one member and Finnegan would choose a chairman.

New Aerotrain Making Debut

Pennsy, NYC Lines
Display Latest Flyer

NEW YORK (AP)—The revolutionary, new, lightweight "Aerotrain" built by General Motors Corp.
makes its formal debut today on two railroads.

A thousand miles apart, two separate units of the train, heralded by GM President Harlow
H. Curtice as a "new concept" in railroading, appear on demonstration runs.

The New York Central Railroad will show one unit on the 283.5-mile trip from Chicago to Detroit.
In the afternoon, the Pennsylvania Railroad puts the other unit through its paces on a run of 216.8 miles from Washington, D. C., to Newark, N. J.

The GM train, a sleek, 10-coach job of aluminum and steel pulled by a jet-nosed diesel especially styled for it, is the latest entry in the field of lightweight trains.
Three other manufacturers are making their own versions of what they think the passenger train of the future should be.

All of these trains are aimed at one goal: licking the chronic railroad passenger deficit which was $669 million in 1954, the latest figure available.

THE TRAIN IS 50 per cent lighter than conventional trains, 60 per cent less costly to build and 60 per cent cheaper to maintain.

GM said it could carry its 400 passengers between New York and Chicago in 10 hours on $125 worth of diesel fuel and could cruise at 100 miles per hour.

Like other lightweight trains, it is low-slung. Its center of gravity is only 45 inches above the rails.
Baggage is stowed underneath the floor as in buses. But the floor is almost as high as on a regular train, permitting better viewing.

Zanesville Cafe Leveled By Fire

ZANESVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Fire destroyed a downtown restaurant in Zanesville early today, routing 30 persons and causing damage estimated at $100,000.

The Casino restaurant went up in flames, leaving only the walls standing.

Firemen battled the blaze at least three hours. No injuries were reported.

Robert Mattingly, the manager, gave the loss estimated.

photos of her rival in the market square of her home village near Innsbruck has been sentenced to five days in jail.

The woman told the judge she found the nude pictures in her husband's wallet. Had posters made

No Tax Cut Seen As Being Assured

Outlook Bright
President Says

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today the budget will be in balance this fiscal year and next. He declared, however, a tax cut would be justifiable only if it would not put the government into the red again.

Eisenhower told Congress the nation's outlook is "bright with promise" even though Soviet leaders have shown they "are not yet willing to create the indispensable conditions for a secure and lasting peace."

In his annual State of the Union message, Eisenhower declared Russia has shifted from "violence,
and the threat of violence to reliance on division, enticement and duplicité."

To meet the Russian threat, the President called, among other things, for a stepped up foreign aid program and asked Congress
"to grant limited authority to make longer term commitments for assistance to such projects, to be fulfilled from appropriations to be made in future fiscal years."

Eisenhower's legislative program also called for:

1. A $25 BILLION program of federal aid to highways such as Congress failed to approve at the last session. Eisenhower suggested nearly "an adequate plan of financing," rather than insisting on the long term borrowing program which caused the highway plan to bog down last year.

2. Farm legislation, including a soil bank program as part of "a many-sided assault on the stubborn problems of surpluses, prices, costs and markets." The program will be detailed Monday.

3. A five-year program of federal aid to school building. This, too, will be outlined in greater detail in a later message.

4. A two-year slum clearance program calling for 35,000 public housing units in each of the two years.

5. Creation of a bipartisan commission to investigate charges that in some localities Negroes are being denied the right to vote.

6. Statehood for Hawaii—Something the President has repeatedly asked and Congress has refused to approve. Eisenhower said he hoped "progress toward statehood" for Alaska also could be made at this session. Hawaii is generally considered to be Republican, Alaska Democratic.

7. Revision of the immigration law so the number of persons admitted to this country each year could be based on the 1950 census rather than that of 1900. Eisenhower also asked amendment of the 1953 Refugee Relief Act so more immigrants can come from Greece and Italy and from the ranks of Iron Curtain escapees.

IN HIS MESSAGE, read by clerks to Congress while the President continued recuperation in Key West, Fla., from his heart attack, Eisenhower declared:

"I expect the budget to be in balance during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1956."

"I shall propose a balanced budget for the next fiscal year ending
June 30, 1957."

The President said present "burdensome" taxes "should be reduced when we prudently can."

He added, however, "under conditions of high peacetime prosperity, such as now exist, we can never justify going further into debt to give ourselves a tax cut at the expense of our children."

"So," Eisenhower said, "in the present state of our financial affairs, I believe a tax cut can be deemed justifiable only when it will not unbalance the budget, a budget which makes provision for some reduction, even though modest, in our national debt."

As expected, he asked Congress again to extend the Defense Production Act. He also renewed a re-

Jeff Cub Pack Nearly Set Up

A group of 35 parents and youngsters turned out Wednesday evening to plan the formation of a Cub Scout pack in Jeffersonville.

The aims of the Cub organization and the advantages it offers members were outlined in the meeting Wednesday. A final planning session next Wednesday will cover how parents can work with the new Cub pack. At that meeting, leaders will be selected and dens will be set up.

The meeting was held at the Jeffersonville Methodist Church, to be the sponsor of the pack. A representative of the church to work with the pack will be appointed at next Monday's meeting of the church board.

Boy Scouts Here At Swim Party

Fifteen Boy Scouts from two Washington C. H. troops went for a winter swim in the Greenfield pool Wednesday evening. Three adults accompanied the boys.

The Scouts were Sonny Yahn, Sonny Lutz, John Mickle, Joe Giebelhouse, Timmy Penwell, Freddie Allen, Jerry Powell, Roger Thornburg and Randy Trace from Troop 32, sponsored by the Grace Methodist Church, and Eddie Orr, Tom Spettigue, Butch Conaway, Jerry Orr, Jerry Phillips and Randy Bolton of Troop 112, sponsored by the American Legion.

Russell Giebelhouse, Donald Markley and Fred Allen drove the group to Greenfield and joined the splashing.

Ike Tells Of Progress

"We must be well prepared to meet the current tactics which pose a dangerous though less obvious threat. At the same time, our policy must be dynamic as well as flexible, designed primarily to forward the achievement of our own objectives rather than to meet each shift and change on the Communist front."

Eisenhower said the free world has scored "major gains in collective security during the last year — such as the addition of Germany to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and the developing of mutual security pacts in Southeast Asia and the Middle East."

Moreover, he said, the United States has laid its disarmament program "squarely before the bar of world opinion" and will persevere in seeking a general reduction of armaments "under effective inspection and control."

The average American family uses 788 tin cans a year.

NOW

Now is the time to begin again — Wipe the slate clean of all mistakes;

Get a new view of what you should do; Desire, effort, will, is what it takes;

Now is the time to forget the past, Think of future, what it will bring;

Have hopes high, be not afraid to try — Let blue birds to you always sing;

Now is the time in this young new year, To begin a page clean and white —

To write the story of each one's life; Be very careful what you write.

Happy New Year.

12 Schools Due To Receive Emergency State Assistance

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The new state board of education has approved tentative allocations of $2,375,900 in emergency funds to help in construction of 12 schools in 10 counties.

The allocations would draw on a three-million-dollar appropriation set up by the last Legislature. Allocations are subject to actual bids and approval of the state controlling board.

The school board was told yesterday that 38 districts had met all qualifications for the money, but these 12 were given top priority:

Negley Local, Columbiana County, $45,000.

Southwestern Local, Gallia County, $22,000.

Clermont Northeastern, Clermont County, $350,000.

Salem Liberty Local, Washington County, $165,000.

Green Local, Gallia County, $165,000.

Junction City Local, Perry County, $114,000.

Kingsville Local, Ashtabula County, $150,000.

Peebles Local, Adams County, $350,000.

Terrace Park, Local, Hamilton County, $70,000.

Jefferson Union Local, Jefferson County, $250,000.

North Gallia Local, Gallia County, $245,000.

Rock Hill Local, Lawrence County, $166,000.

The board also adopted policies providing for departmental hearings in cases involving transfers of school district territory on the basis of petitions or municipal annexations. The board will accept or reject departmental recommendations after the hearings.

In other action, the board adopted rules of procedure. One provision calls on the state to reimburse the board's 23 members for any parking charges they incur while on state business.

In the past, the state auditor has refused to honor such items. He held the mileage allowance covers all costs of operating a personal car.

liance on division, enticement and duplicity," he continued.

"We must be well prepared to meet the current tactics which pose a dangerous though less obvious threat. At the same time, our policy must be dynamic as well as flexible, designed primarily to forward the achievement of our own objectives rather than to meet each shift and change on the Communist front."

Eisenhower said the free world has scored "major gains in collective security during the last year — such as the addition of Germany to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and the developing of mutual security pacts in Southeast Asia and the Middle East."

Moreover, he said, the United States has laid its disarmament program "squarely before the bar of world opinion" and will persevere in seeking a general reduction of armaments "under effective inspection and control."

The average American family uses 788 tin cans a year.

Poet's Corner

NOW

Now is the time to begin again — Wipe the slate clean of all mistakes; Get a new view of what you should do;

Desire, effort, will, is what it takes, Now is the time to forget the past, Think of future, what it will bring;

Have hopes high, be not afraid to try — Let blue birds to you always sing; Now is the time in this young new year,

To begin a page clean and white — To write the story of each one's life; Be very careful what you write. Happy New Year. May M. Duffee

Fayette Countian Seeks Seat In State Senate

The public announcement this week that Ray Brandenburg, prominent Fayette County agriculturist and an outstandingly successful business man of Washington C. H., has become a candidate for the Republican nomination for State Senator to represent this 5th-6th Ohio district, has been received in this and neighboring counties with marked acclaim.

Brandenburg has become recognized in this and numerous other Ohio communities, not only as a man of integrity and high qualifications, but also as a citizen who has never shirked any of the many public duties and assignments thrust upon him. In every instance, without thought of reward, he has completed any job for which he has been designated with unquestioned ability and success.

It is generally expected that the Ohio General Assembly, which is to convene in January after the 1956 election, will be of exceptional importance. There are scores of vital public problems to be solved by a new administration. Many of these will require representatives of high ability and character in the House and Senate at Columbus. Men in those two elective bodies will need stalwart courage in facing issues, known to be arising, issues which will affect taxpayers, in many ways as well as other legislative decisions of a far reaching nature.

The men who will be called upon to represent stable rural counties like Fayette, must be men of stature and mature judgment. They will hold the balance of power. Representing Fayette for several past years in the House, Virgil Perrill, credited with meeting and properly handling several such issues in the past, understands the pitfalls which are constantly before every representative. Senatorial districts like the one composed of Fayette, Ross, Highland, Clinton and Greene Counties, must call upon men to represent them who are capable of understanding of all phases of business, civic and financial problems. They must be able to show that they are not "soft touches" for pressure groups which may seek either to gain or stop legislation for the selfish purposes of a few.

It has been many years since Fayette County has had a state senator in this district. We venture the opinion that the district would be well served by a man of Brandenburg's type in a manner which would quickly gain the public's confidence and pride.

He has proven himself as possessing unusual vigor, mentally and physically; a man of forceful and sound business judgment; a man to be trusted.

The 5th-6th Ohio Senatorial District needs a man of this caliber to represent it and his thousands of friends are hoping to see Brandenburg nominated for this post at the coming Republican primary election next May.

It is not often that busy men of his make-up are willing to enter a political campaign for a position which will mean hard service and long hours. A seat in the Ohio Senate will require just that if the job of State Senator is filled as capably as it should be.

Brandenburg can be counted upon to do that kind of a job because he does not know how to work any other way. He will think and act as he deems best for the people he represents. He is not a man easily to be misled.

Diet and Health

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN
Every once in a while you read about a baby who is born with a tooth.

While a youngster's teeth seldom are visible at birth, the crowns of his baby teeth are fully formed at this time. In fact, they begin forming in the jaws about five months before the child is born.

Lower Incisors

Generally, the first teeth to appear are the two lower central incisors which come in between the age of six and eight months. Somewhere between seven and nine months the upper central incisors appear. These are followed by the two upper lateral incisors, directly alongside the upper central incisors.

Most children have all six of these teeth by the age of one year, although the time the teeth come in may vary greatly.

The first four molars, or grinding teeth, appear between 11 and 13 months. Your tot will get his four cuspid teeth around 19 to 21 months. The cuspids are the sharp-pointed teeth at the corners of his mouth.

Upper Cuspids

Some persons refer to the upper cuspids as eye teeth and the lowers as stomach teeth. The cuspids come in between the lateral incisors and the first molars.

The four second molars or grinding teeth usually appear between the age of 22 months and two and a half years. These teeth, farthest back in the mouth, are the last to come in.

Occasionally, the upper or lower central or lateral incisor teeth may come in crooked. In most cases, they will straighten by themselves as the baby grows older.

However, a baby may inherit crooked teeth or a bad bite. This may mean he will need special treatment at a later time.

Teething seldom makes a baby sick, although he may fret for a day or two because his gums are sore.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

D. V. M.: Both my parents are allergic. Does this mean that I will have allergies also?

Answer: Children who have two allergic parents are much more likely to have an allergy than those who do not, or have only one allergic parent. There is also a greater tendency for the allergy to appear at an earlier age.

Ex-Official Fined; Strikes Newsman

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — A former member of the town board of near-by Lawrence was convicted of malicious trespass and fined $25 and $10 costs yesterday for striking at an Indianapolis Star news photographer.

The altercation occurred Oct. 28 between Thomas M. Kautzman, then a board member, and photographer James C. Ramsey, who was trying to photograph the board in session.

Judge Scott Gung in municipal court told Kautzman:

"As an elected public official you are news and you surrender privacy you might enjoy as a private citizen. It's something you must expect when you are elected to a public office."

Curb On Teen-Age Driving Is Urged

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Teen-agers should be prevented from driving after dark, says Dr. Elmer Hess, president of the American Medical Assn. Dr. Hess, of Erie, Pa., said in an address here. "In my part of the country most of the after-dark accidents involve teen-agers." He also blamed elderly people who poke about the highways as a major cause of accidents.

5 Ohio Men Fined In Fraud Case

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Five Columbus men found guilty of conspiring to defraud the Navy in a million dollar contract have been given suspended prison terms or probation and fined a total of $31,000.

They were charged with substituting inferior material for engine wiping cloths in the $1,358,962 contract.

The five, all members of Grossman and Sons, Inc., Columbus, received the following sentences yesterday in federal court:

Ben Grossman, fined $10,000 and given a two-year suspended prison term; his three sons: Herbert, $10,000 and two years suspended; Arnold, $7,500, one year suspended; and Marvin, $2,500, six months suspended; and Herbert Romanoff, the elder Grossman's nephew, placed on five years probation and fined $1,000.

Girls, This Is Year To Act

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—Leap Year in 1956 finds America's lovelorn ladies in a terrible pickle.

There never really are enough good men to go around. This year there aren't enough men of any kind.

An expert has estimated there are now 20 million women eligible for marriage in the United States, but only 17 million men.

What do these figures mean? Let's face it, ladies. They add up to a disheartening fact—demand exceeds supply. Competition will be keener than ever. It is, for once, truly a man's world—at least for single men. The rascals have a real edge. To win them you will have to woo them harder than ever.

To catch a man this Leap Year a girl may have to do more than leap. She may also have to hop, skip, gallop, go at a dead run, throw a lasso or even learn to use an insect net to imprison the butterfly male of her choice.

This brings up the primary problem. Who will be the man of her choice? Many a big game hunter who goes out after bear returns home with a rabbit and, if he is a philosopher, tries to be contented. After all, he has had the thrill of the chase and he did bag something.

A common-sense girl will seek to follow this same philosophy. When it comes to husband hunting in 1956, this must be the year of "the great feminine compromise." The crop of potential husbands is not only small in quantity. It also leaves much to be asked for in terms of quality.

The depressing truth is that the present lot of bachelors is about the most worthless, self-centered bunch of responsibility dodgers in history. All they do is eat off their married friends, refuse to help with the dishes, and then go home and watch television.

In this situation, therefore, the wise girl will adjust herself to the conditions of the chase. She may go out loaded for bear, but she won't reject a lonesome rabbit. Only a foolish girl will tell a fellow in February, "I wouldn't marry you if you were the last man in the world." By December he may indeed be the last man in the world available, so far as she can find.

Naturally every average girl dreams of marrying a tall, dark, and handsome millionaire. But in the matrimonial sweepstakes this kind of target is a rarity.

For one thing, few millionaires are tall, dark and handsome. For another thing, most millionaires are already married or already paying alimony to two ex-wives and unwilling to grubstake a third. And finally, the last person the average millionaire wants to marry is an average girl. If he marries an average girl, he does it before he is a millionaire.

Is there no hope for the average girl, then? Of course, there is. Her natural target is the average guy.

How can he find him? Very simple.

She should walk up to the first single man she can discover, and listen closely. Is he breathing? Good. He has passed the first test with flying colors.

The next test is whether he has character. To women there is only one genuine sign of character in a man, and that is—will he marry? It doesn't take long to find this out. Any man will marry if he isn't unalterable dedicated to wine, horses and gin rummy.

Sister, if you find a guy who breathes and has character, go ahead and put your band on him. He may look like a night-mare but that is every woman's lifelong wifely challenge—to take a male mouse and turn him into the great big man of her schemes.

Republican Party Differences

By George Sokolsky

When one speaks of unity in an American political party, one speaks of a logical impossibility. As there are only two realistic political parties in this free country, those of varying views will find themselves taking refuge under one banner or another. There is nowhere else to go, except maybe the prohibition party. Just as the Democratic party forms an umbrella over varieties of view, ranging from the socialistic A.D.A. to the conservative Southern Democrats, so the Republican party forms a similar umbrella for varieties of view ranging from Taft Republicans to the amorphous Democrats-for-Eisenhower.

Senator William F. Knowland is the only Republican who is, at present, an overt candidate for president on the assumption that President Eisenhower will be unable to run. President Eisenhower will not be able to say until mid-February and other prospective candidates prefer to say nothing lest they be suspected of improper aspirations. A secret candidate is Thomas E. Dewey who could accept the vice presidency on the assumption that President Eisenhower will run, will be elected, but will not be able to complete his term. Dewey is willing to become President by any means. The moral conflict within the Republican party is symbolized by the competition between Knowland and Dewey.

Plaintiff Wins Unusual Action

Court Holds Fraud Was Practiced

Judge John P. Case has issued a lengthy decision in the case of Edwin W. Dean against George Rodney Dean, et. al., in which he returned a finding for the plaintiff.

The parties entered into an agreement about March 15, 1946, under the terms of which they agreed to purchase certain real estate in Columbus, and upon agreement the title to the property was to be taken in the names of the defendants, and the defendants would obtain the full purchase price of $4,500 by executing a purchase money mortgage in that amount. Half of the mortgage payments, repairs, water bills and other expenses were to be paid by the plaintiff and half by defendants; the plaintiff would own an undivided half interest in the property, and the defendants the other half.

When the plaintiff graduated from Ohio State University, the defendants were to convey an undivided half interest in the premises to the plaintiff. The property, a duplex, was purchased, and the plaintiff paid half of the mortgage payments, repairs, etc., and defendants the other half.

When the plaintiff graduated in June 1949, and asked the defendants to convey such undivided half interest in the property to the plaintiff, they refused to do so.

On Dec. 7, 1951, the defendants sold the property without knowledge or consent of the plaintiff, it was charged, and used the proceeds to purchase other property in Fayette County, making no accounting to the plaintiff.

The plaintiff asked for an accounting and equitable relief.

In their answer the defendants made certain admissions and deny other claims of the plaintiff, and allege the agreement with the plaintiff was oral and unenforceable by virtue of the statute of frauds. The defendants in their cross petition sought judgment in the amount of $4,203.

A general denial to the claims of the defendants was made by the plaintiff, who asked that the answer be dismissed.

Judge Case held that the defendants owed a duty to account for and to distribute one-half of the net proceeds for the sale of the property, and that by reason of their failure to do so they practiced a fraud upon the plaintiff and the plaintiff is entitled to an equitable lien on defendant's real estate in Fayette County, and judgment was rendered for the plaintiff. The cross petition of the defendants was dismissed. Costs of the prosecution are assessed against the defendants.

Your School Report Card

By W. A. SMITH

(City School Superintendent)

(The following report was submitted by Mrs. Dorothy Everhart, second grade teacher at Central School, after the installation of the acoustical tile in Central's corridor.)

Some interesting comments were made and barely overheard in the Central School corridor Tuesday morning as the children returned from their Christmas vacation. The installation of the new sound-proof ceiling during the holidays was the reason for the varied and not too well-heard comments.

One group of first graders stopped abruptly inside the Temple Street entrance and looked around cautiously. One little boy whispered, "Something's different." Another one answered, "It's the ceiling. Look! It's full of holes. Hope it won't rain on us!"

Two second graders were having an earnest conversation as they entered their room. One was heard to exclaim, "Boy! It looks just like the hospital." Answered his buddy, "Yeah. It smells like it, too. Hope nobody tries to take my tonsils out again!"

The greatest compliment to the new ceiling, however, was made by a sixth grader when senenth and eighth graders started into the building. The sixth grader stopped abruptly and looked in amazement as the Junior High group came in. Her two words, "No Noise!" spelled the success of the new ceiling.

Head Basketball Coach Russell is announcing the start of basketball practice for the fifth and sixth grade boys for each Saturday morning at ten o'clock.

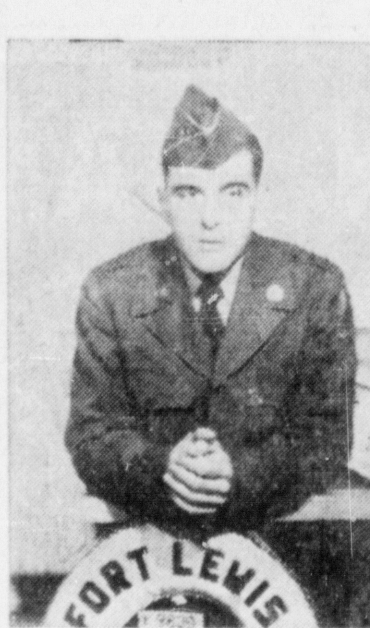

Registration will be held in the gym this Saturday (January 6) beginning at 9 A. M.

Approximately 175 are eligible to participate but probably only one half this number will be out. The coaching staff, assisted by members of the varsity squad, will conduct the program.

Each boy coming out will be given a slip which will have to be filled out by his parents. It includes the provision for their consent.

Shoes, shirts, and shorts will have to be furnished by each boy in order to participate.

LOCATED—Just across the road from the Clinton County Air Force Base, 1½ miles southeast of Wilmington, Ohio, on State Route 73.

75-Acre Farm with Subdivision Possibilities—Sells at 2:00 P. M.

This highly improved and strategically located Clinton County farm has more possibilities than any farm that has been on the market for a long time. It is located directly across the highway from one of the fastest expanding air bases in the country today. It has considerable highway frontage with city water on the farm. The Developer, the Speculator, the Home Owner, and the Farmer should investigate this exceptional offering.

Improvements consist of a seven-room, 1½ story, modern frame house with full basement and furnace; four nice sized rooms and bath downstairs, and three large airy bedrooms up; front porch; enclosed rear porch wired for automatic washer and drier; abundance of closet space. Other modern features include: tile floors; wall and base cabinets; shower in the basement; new 82-gallon electric hot water heater; new aluminum storm windows; life-time slate roof; artistically landscaped and shaded; two-car concrete block garage. Other improvements consist of a new cement block, hip roof barn, 40 x 42, with triple mow, concrete floor and metal roof. This barn was completed just this last summer at a cost of approximately $10,000. New corn crib, 40 x 8, 1500-bushel capacity, with metal roof.

This farm is in a high state of cultivation as good soil practices have been followed for a number of years, with adequate fertilizer and lime program being followed. Considerable liming has been done this past fall. Fences are drainage are above average, as considerable new fencing has been installed the past two years. Satisfactory water supply to all main fields. Fencing so arranged to give easy access to the barn.

This is one of the most unique offerings that we have had in several years as it is a beautiful homesite, highly-improved farm in a high state of production and also lends itself well for development with city water, electric power and all modern rural conveniences available, located on a state highway at the edge of Wilmington, Ohio, and just adjacent to the Clinton County Air Base.

Sale on the premises. Sells to highest bidder. INSPECTION permitted any time prior to day of sale or by appointment. For further information regarding this farm and financing, contact The Bailey-Murphy-Darbyshire Company, Wilmington, Ohio, phone 2292.

Plaintiff Wins Unusual Action

Court Holds Fraud Was Practiced

Judge John P. Case has issued a lengthy decision in the case of Edwin W. Dean against George Rodney Dean, et al., in which he returned a finding for the plaintiff.

The parties entered into an agreement about March 15, 1946, under the terms of which they agreed to purchase certain real estate in Columbus, and upon agreement the title to the property was to be taken in the names of the defendants, and the defendants would obtain the full purchase price of $4,500 by executing a purchase money mortgage in that amount. Half of the mortgage payments, repairs, water bills and other expenses were to be paid by the plaintiff and half by defendants; the plaintiff would own an undivided half interest in the property, and the defendants the other half.

When the plaintiff graduated from Ohio State University, the defendants were to convey an undivided half interest in the premises to the plaintiff. The property, a duplex, was purchased, and the plaintiff paid half of the mortgage payments, repairs, etc., and defendants the other half.

When the plaintiff graduated in June 1949, and asked the defendants to convey such undivided half interest in the property to the plaintiff, they refused to do so.

On Dec. 7, 1951, the defendants sold the property without knowledge or consent of the plaintiff, it was charged, and used the proceeds to purchase other property in Fayette County, making no accounting to the plaintiff.

The plaintiff asked for an accounting and equitable relief.

In their answer the defendants made certain admissions and deny other claims of the plaintiff, and allege the agreement with the plaintiff was oral and unenforceable by virtue of the statute of frauds. The defendants in their cross petition sought judgment in the amount of $4,203.

A general denial to the claims of the defendants was made by the plaintiff, who asked that the answer be dismissed.

Judge Case held that the defendants owed a duty to account for and to distribute one-half of the net proceeds for the sale of the property, and that by reason of their failure to do so they practiced a fraud upon the plaintiff and the plaintiff is entitled to an equitable lien on defendant's real estate in Fayette County, and judgment was rendered for the plaintiff. The cross petition of the defendants was dismissed. Costs of the prosecution are assessed against the defendants.

Your School Report Card

By W. A. SMITH

(City School Superintendent)

(The following report was submitted by Mrs. Dorothy Everhart, second grade teacher at Central School, after the installation of the acoustical tile in Central's corridor.)

Some interesting comments were made and barely overheard in the Central School corridor Tuesday morning as the children returned from their Christmas vacation. The installation of the new sound-proof ceiling during the holidays was the reason for the varied and not too well-heard comments.

One group of first graders stopped abruptly inside the Temple Street entrance and looked around cautiously. One little boy whispered, "Something's different." Another one answered, "It's the ceiling. Look! It's full of holes. Hope it won't rain on us!"

Two second graders were having an earnest conversation as they entered their room. One was heard to exclaim, "Boy! It looks just like the hospital." Answered his buddy, "Yeah. It smells like it, too. Hope

nobody tries to take my tonsils out again!"

The greatest compliment to the new ceiling, however, was made by a sixth grader when senenth and eighth graders started into the building. The sixth grader stopped abruptly and looked in amazement as the Junior High group came in. Her two words, "No Noise!" spelled the success of the new ceiling.

Head Basketball Coach Russell is announcing the start of basketball practice for the fifth and sixth grade boys for each Saturday morning at ten o'clock.

Registration will be held in the gym this Saturday (January 6) beginning at 9 A. M.

Approximately 175 are eligible to participate but probably only one half this number will be out. The coaching staff, assisted by members of the varsity squad, will conduct the program.

Each boy coming out will be given a slip which will have to be filled out by his parents. It includes the provision for their consent.

Shoes, shirts, and shorts will have to be furnished by each boy in order to participate.

Flint hand axes, made and used all over the world in the old stone age cannot be reproduced by modern man, says the National Geographic Society.

Truck Abandoned And Auto Stolen

A truck stolen in Lancaster was abandoned on East Temple Street Tuesday night and a Pontiac car owned by Howard Griffith, 932 East Temple Street, left at the curb with the switch key in it, was stolen, apparently by the person who abandoned the stolen truck.

The missing car bore license number 309 HJ.

Ike Ends Works, Is Fully Relaxed

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP)—President Eisenhower, his work completed on two major messages to Congress, arranged to take it "completely easy" Wednesday.

James C. Hagerty, White House press secretary, said that for the first time since the President arrived here a week ago he had scheduled no work session on government business.

"This is a day when it looks like he can take it completely easy," Hagerty said.

Girls Are Injured In Auto Accident

Two girls, Jean Jefferson, 15, and Ruth Ferguson, 15, both of Washington C. H., were painfully injured in an auto accident in Bloomingburg, when a car driven by Roscoe VanDyne, 23, Bloomingburg, got out of control on Main Street in that village and crashed into the W. P. Noble Service Station, causing considerable damage.

Deputy Sheriff Robert McArthur investigated. No charges have yet been filed.

Four Vehicles In General Mix-Up

Four motor vehicles were damaged in a get-together at the junction of Elm Street and Highland Avenue but no one was injured seriously, although all four vehicles suffered damage.

The vehicles involved were those of Efford A. McCoy, city, who was headed west on Elm Street; Marion Wendell Crosswhite, city, driving north on route 70; Frank C. Reveal, headed west on Elm Street and Robert B. Ernst, city, headed south on Route 70.

The mishap occurred when one of the cars turned into Elm Street, was struck, and the other cars were quickly involved in the same mishap.

Deputy Sheriff Don Thompson investigated the mixup.

Queen and Her Court Ready at Bloomingburg

BLOOMINGBURG HOMECOMING Queen and her attendants, (above) will reign Friday night when the Bloomingburg Bulldogs meet the Mad Antonies of Good Hope on the basketball court. The Bulldogs will be trying to upset the Good Hope boys, as yet undefeated in the county league. The pretty girls above are the queen and her attendants who will reign at the game and homecoming dance. In the first row are sophomore Mary Lytle (left) and freshman Gloria Cleland. In the middle row, smiling up at the queen, are Junior Brenda Emery (left) and senior Marilyn Heistand. At the top is the queen herself, senior Zana Cowdery. (Record-Herald photo)

It will be Homecoming out in Bloomingburg Friday night. Zana Cowdery will reign as Homecoming Queen when the Bloomingburg Bulldogs meet the Mad Antonies from Good Hope on the Bloomingburg basketball court Friday evening at 7.

Elected this week by her classmates, Zana will be crowned at halftime of the varsity game by Lester Vincent, first-string center and team co-captain.

Serving as Queen Zana's attendants will be senior Marilyn Heistand, junior Brenda Emery, sophomore Mary Lytle and freshman Gloria Cleland. They also will reign with Queen Zana at a Homecoming Dance, sponsored by the senior class, following the game.

The Bulldogs, who now stand third in the Fayette County League race, will be hoping for an upset of Good Hope. In county play Good Hope is thus far undefeated, with three wins to the squad's credit.

The Bloomingburg boys are also defending champions of the Fayette County tournament, which they have won four years in a row.

With a record of one win and two losses in County League play and five wins and six losses in games so far this year, the Bulldogs hope to pick up in rank by cutting down the county's top team.

With the record as it stands now, according to Head Coach Everett Rudolph, "every game is a rivalry."

It will be a medium-sized Bloomingburg team on the floor Friday night, Rudolph said, with an average height of 5 feet 10 inches. He added that the Good Hope boys average about the same height.

There will be only one senior on the starting five, Vincent. He is co-captain with Jerry McCoy.

Vincent is a three-sport man. He played varsity basketball the latter half of last season, ran the 100 and 200 yard dashes in track and played varsity baseball as third baseman.

McCoy is also a multiple-sport boy, with basketball and baseball experience last year as a sophomore.

Queen Zana, 17, is a cheerleader.

December Was Unusually Dry

Temperature Also Was Below Normal

December was one of the driest months in recent years, and as a result the total precipitation during the year fell several inches below normal.

November also was a dry month and some of the others during the year were not up to normal.

Total precipitation in December was only .60 of an inch; normal is 3.12 inches.

Total precipitation for all of 1955 was 35.55 inches; normal for the average year is 39.66 inches.

This means that 4.11 inches less rain fell during the year than during a normal year. However, the deficit was not too serious inasmuch as it followed a year when precipitation was slightly above normal.

Rainfall in December was 2.52 inches below normal.

Not only was the precipitation usually low in December, but the temperature average was 2.43 degrees lower than normal for December. The average for December was 29.72 degrees and the normal for the month is 32.20.

During the month temperatures ranged all the way from 4 above zero on Dec. 16, to 60 above on Dec. 24.

The mean maximum temperature was 38.90 degrees and mean minimum was 20.54 degrees.

THE KARKANTZARI

This is the time of the Karkantzari. You can't see these mysterious creatures who attack the unwary between Christmas and Twelfth Night. But you know they've been around when you wake up in the morning feeling alike... well, as if you just can't get out of bed and face the day.

The Karkantzari first made their presence known in Macedonia in Greece. For centuries they have concentrated on making the poor Macedonian peasant's life as miserable as possible during the twelve days of Christmas, the time that should be the happiest of the year. They set upon people in their sleep and beat them. They sneak up and punch them in the stomach and hit them on the head, causing aches and pains in those areas. Oddly enough, they traditionally go into their act when folks fall asleep after a heavy meal of rich foods and drink.

Unfortunately, with modern improvements in transportation, the Karkantzari are now believed to be extending their field of operations. There is even evidence that they have infiltrated the United States. Steps must be taken immediately to prevent those foreign invaders from sabotaging our health and happiness.

There is some doubt that the traditional Macedonian methods of fighting off the Karkantzari will work in this country. One method is to burn old shoes, because the odor of burning leather is very offensive to them. Another is to call in a Greek Orthodox priest who will dip a Cross entwined with sprigs of basil into Holy Water and sprinkle each room of the house. With this the Karkantzari are supposed to disappear until the next Christmas.

In this country, where science is so highly developed, it would seem that some more effective defense could be developed. It is just possible that scientific application of modern knowledge of nutrition might drive the Karkantzari from our shores.

Problems Of Segregation Still Batted To And Fro

(By The Associated Press)
Various problems of segregation and its controversial twin—integration—were being batted back and forth like tennis balls today across a taut net of contention.
In New York, the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People wants the government to investigate the Federation for Constitutional Government, a pro-segregation group which the NAACP says is subversive.
A former governor of Virginia now in Congress wants the U. S. attorney general to disclose the name of a Justice Department official who said he doubts if it's legal to use public funds to support "private" schools in an attempt to avoid pupil integration. And the state of North Carolina wants the U. S. Supreme Court to toss aside its historic decision outlawing segregation in public schools and return to its earlier "separate but equal" rule.

There was also a backwash of segregation into the field of science. The American Assn. for the Advancement of Science decided to vote by mail on a resolution designed to prevent future sessions in cities that allow racial segregation and discrimination based on race or creed.
From the sidelines of these problems, Dr. L. H. Foster, president of Tuskegee Institute observed that the South is moving closer to racial integration despite "islands of tension and conflict."

The attack on the Federation for Constitutional Government was set off by the NAACP in a telegram to Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell.
The federation's avowed aim, the NAACP telegram stated, "is the flagrant violation of the U. S. Supreme Court decisions banning segregation in the public schools and interstate commerce."
Brownell also received another telegram on the racial issue—this one from Rep. Tuck (D-Va.).
The former Virginia governor told Brownell that the unnamed official in the Department of Justice who doubted the legality of using public funds for "private" schools was seeking to "coerce and intimidate" Virginia voters prior to the Jan. 9 referendum.
On that date Virginia will decide whether a convention should be called to change the state constitution to allow grants for children going to nonsectarian private schools. Such grants would form part of an effort to sidestep compulsory integration.

North Carolina's desire for a return to the "separate but equal" doctrine was expressed by its attorney general, William B. Rodman, in the state's appeal from a federal district court decision affecting the University of North Carolina. The court told the university it must process the application of three Negro undergraduate students.

France Has Voted Herself Into New King-Size Crisis

PARIS (A)—France has voted herself into a political crisis that may rock the country to the bottom and shake her relations with the Western alliance.
Such stability as the country had — and it hasn't had much since the war — is now threatened by a new force, Poujadism, whose avowed aim is disruption. At its side stands a vastly reinforced Communist party.
These two strong voices in French politics could force a lot of changes. Both are anti-everything that was represented in the government now going out of office. That was probably the most pro-American and pro-Atlantic pact government that France is likely to see for some time.
Conceivably, it could turn out that the gad-fly operation of the Poujadists could force a dilatory Parliament to act with decision on many painful problems it has long pushed aside. But there were few ready to make such a hopeful prediction.

These followers of the little bookshop proprietor who built a tax strike into a national movement, have expressed little interest in foreign affairs.
At this stage what seems more likely is that so-called "moderate" voices in the Assembly will go on doing what they have before—that is to form Cabinets which are able to compromise on one subject at a time. In the past they have managed that way to get some decisions taken, but almost always too late, and almost always too inconclusively.

Terms Of Office Selected For New Board of Education

COLUMBUS, Ohio (P)—Robert A. Manchester of Canfield and Elliott E. Meyers of Ironton are the new president and vice president, respectively, of the recently created state board of education.

Manchester, representing the 19th District, was elected on the eighth ballot at the board's first organizational meeting yesterday. Nine others were eliminated.

Manchester was one of seven board members to draw a two-year term by lot. The board is composed of one member from each of Ohio's 23 congressional districts. Meyers represents the 10th District.

Eight members drew four-year terms out of a hat, and another eight got six-year terms. In the future, one third of the membership will be elected every two years.

Members were elected last November under a 1955 law which set up the board and transferred to it all functions and administrative authority previously held by the state director of education, R. M. Eyman. That post was abolished. Eyman was continued in his other capacity of superintendent of public instruction, at least temporarily.

All other personnel in the state education department also will temporarily keep their jobs.

Gov. Frank J. Lausche told board members to think of the state as a whole in their actions rather than individual districts.

"If you serve the state well, inevitably good will come to your local district," Lausche said.

An extra $5 million dollars will have to be found to finance the state school subsidy for the 1957-58 biennium, the governor added. He pointed out the last Legislature appropriated only 275 millions for the school subsidy law, which he said will cost 281 millions.

These are the terms drawn by lot by all members of the board:

First—Walter E. Bekjord, Cincinnati, four years.

Second—David B. Wood, Cincinnati, two years.

Third—Mrs. Rutherford D. Mayne, Dayton, four years.

Fourth—Cecil M. Sims, Piqua, four years.

Fifth—Wayne E. Shaffer, Bryan, two years.

Sixth—Ward M. Miller, Portsmouth, six years.

Seventh—Harold Whitaker, Waynesville, two years.

Eighth—Charlton Myers, Marion, six years.

Ninth—Joseph D. Stacher, Toledo, four years.

Tenth—Elliott E. Meyers, Ironton, six years.

Eleventh—John W. Morrison, Aurora, two years.

Twelfth—Paul L. Walker, Columbus, two years.

Thirteenth—James P. Lavey, Milan, six years.

Fourteenth—Francis W. Spicer, Akron, four years.

Fifteenth—Wilfred G. Foreman, Zanesville, six years.

Sixteenth—Loren E. Souers, Jr., Canton, four years.

Seventeenth—Russell Hoy, Canal Lewisville, six years.

Eighteenth—Robert W. Walker, Adena, six years.

Nineteenth—Robert A. Manchester, Canfield, two years.

Twentieth—Esther L. Carman, Cleveland, four years.

Twenty-first—Charles P. Lucas, Cleveland, six years.

Twenty-second—Francis Payne, Euclid, two years.

Twenty-third—Frank Seidel, Rocky River, two years.

Matriarch Of Popular Ridge Has Peck Of Clay Pipes Now

CHILLICOTHE (P)—The little old lady of the Buckskin hills is again puffing contentedly on her clay pipes.

And that makes everything all right again for 81-year-old Amanda Rossale Spuler, matriarch of Poplar Ridge in these southern Ohio hills.

"Rossie," as she is known in the hill community, reached a crisis recently when she got down to her last "stone pipe" and was unable to get any more. Rodney Gragg, operator of the Bainbridge General Store, said he tried in vain to get clay pipes from old suppliers in Kentucky, Virginia and New York.

A news story about Rossie and her plight reached out across the country. Clay pipes began to descend upon the Gragg store, and today his best pipe customer said, "Now, I've got enough pipes to last me the rest of my life."

Gragg said he was overwhelmed by the response of so many people to Rossie's difficulties.

In all, he said he gave "a peck of pipes" to Rossie, that he had written 26 replies to persons who donated pipes, and had as many still to write.

Gragg admitted he was as pleased about the clay pipe arrivals as Rossie herself.

One last donation came from Alfred Rife of near Newark. He sent along an antique clay pipe, with the form of an Indian squaw etched on its face. It had belonged to his grandmother.

3 Games Slated For Here Friday

Greenfield At WHS;
2 In County League

Basketballs will be filling the air over Fayette County Friday night with three games scheduled to get under way right after supper.

In Washington C. H., the Lions cagers are to tangle with the Tigers from Greenfield in a South Central Ohio League tilt. The Lions have won two of the three SCO games played this season and the Tigers have lost two of the three they have played.

Against a background of keen sports rivalry through the years, and with the added spice of the league, this holds promise of being a nip and tuck affair.

On the surface, the Lions might seem to have a slight edge on paper, but actually, an analysis of the records of the teams shows there is little difference. Both teams lost to Wilmington's front running Hurricane, the Lions by 20 points and the Tigers by 15 points; both teams have beaten Circleville's Tigers, the Lions by 11 points and the Tigers (Greenfield) by 6 points; the Lions hold a 6-point victory over Hillsboro's Indians but the Tigers lost to the Indians by 2 points. Each team has played nine games to date (most in the league) and each has won 6 and lost 3.

WHILE THE Lions and Tigers are battling it out on the WHS floor here, two all-important Fayette County League games will be in progress.

Over at Bloomingburg, the Mad Antonies from Good Hope will be defending their top position in the loop against the always tough Bulldogs.

And at Jeffersonville, the Tigers will be taking on the Warriors from Madison Mills.

The Bulldogs have won 3 of their 11 games overall and one of the league games. The Mad Antonies have won 5 of their 11 games and all three they have played against league opponents to take the No. 1 spot in the standing.

The Bulldogs single league win was from the Warriors and their losses to Jeffersonville's Tigers and, significantly, to the Mad Antonies by 4 points.

Jeffersonville's Tigers, who are to play host to the Warriors Friday night, have an overall season's record of 4 wins in 10 games with one victory and one defeat (by the Mad Antonies).

The Warriors, who have not been as busy as the other league teams, have won 2 of the 7 games they have played and have lost both league games; to the Bulldogs and to the League leading boys from Good Hope by a single point, 65-64. That game with the Mad Antonies could be a tip that a fast and furious bit of basketball is in prospect at Jeffersonville Friday night.

WHILE THE four Fayette County League teams are all wrapped up in their own feud Friday night, New Holland, just over the line in Pickaway County, will be full of basketball enthusiasm with the Bulldogs entertaining the outfit from Ashville in a Pickaway County League fracas.

Friday night's games in the SCO

League are:
Greenfield at Washington C. H.
Hillsboro at Circleville
Wilmington at Waverly
Friday night's game in the Fayette County League are:
Good Hope at Bloomingburg
Madison Mills at Jeff
Also in the community there will be:
Ashville at New Holland.

St. Bonaventure won 59th in a row at home, whipping Le Moyne 80-70.

3 Games Slated For Here Friday

Greenfield At WHS; 2 In County League

Basketballs will be filling the air over Fayette County Friday night with three games scheduled to get under way right after supper.

In Washington C. H., the Lions cagers are to tangle with the Tigers from Greenfield in a South Central Ohio League tilt. The Lions have won two of the three SCO games played this season and the Tigers have lost two of the three they have played.

Against a background of keen sports rivalry through the years, and with the added spice of the league, this holds promise of being a nip and tuck affair.

On the surface, the Lions might seem to have a slight edge on paper, but actually, an analysis of the records of the teams shows there is little difference. Both teams lost to Wilmington's front running Hurricane, the Lions by 20 points and the Tigers by 15 points; both teams have beaten Circleville's Tigers, the Lions by 11 points and the Tigers (Greenfield) by 6 points; the Lions hold a 6-point victory over Hillsboro's Indians but the Tigers lost to the Indians by 2 points. Each team has played nine games to date (most in the league) and each has won 6 and lost 3.

WHILE THE Lions and Tigers are battling it out on the WHS floor here, two all-important Fayette County League games will be in progress.

Over at Bloomingburg, the Mad Antonies from Good Hope will be defending their top position in the loop against the always tough Bulldogs.

And at Jeffersonville, the Tigers will be taking on the Warriors from Madison Mills.

The Bulldogs have won 3 of their 11 games overall and one of the league games. The Mad Antonies have won 5 of their 11 games and all three they have played against league opponents to take the No. 1 spot in the standing.

The Bulldogs single league win was from the Warriors and their losses to Jeffersonville's Tigers and, significantly, to the Mad Antonies by 4 points.

Jeffersonville's Tigers, who are to play host to the Warriors Friday night, have an overall season's record of 4 wins in 10 games with one victory and one defeat (by the Mad Antonies).

The Warriors, who have not been as busy as the other league teams, have won 2 of the 7 games they have played and have lost both league games; to the Bulldogs and to the League leading boys from Good Hope by a single point, 65-64. That game with the Mad Antonies could be a tip that a fast and furious bit of basketball is in prospect at Jeffersonville Friday night.

WHILE THE four Fayette County League teams are all wrapped up in their own feud Friday night, New Holland, just over the line in Pickaway County, will be full of basketball enthusiasm with the Bulldogs entertaining the outfit from Ashville in a Pickaway County League fracas.

Friday night's games in the SCO

League are:
Greenfield at Washington C. H.
Hillsboro at Circleville
Wilmington at Waverly
Friday night's game in the Fayette County League are:
Good Hope at Bloomingburg
Madison Mills at Jeff
Also in the community there will be:
Ashville at New Holland.

Dayton Flyers Due To Test Duquesne '5'

NEW YORK (AP)—Seven-foot Bill Uhl and his Dayton Flyers return to action after a week's vacation tonight against tough Duquesne in an effort to extend their undefeated string to 10 games.

In another AAC contest, Lefty Davis scored 26 points to lead Wake Forest to an 84-71 sweet revenge victory over Duke. Only last week, the Deacons dropped a 64-52 decision to the Dukes in the Dixie Classic.

Fullmer Seeks Lause Re-Bout

CLEVELAND (AP)—At last, a victorious fighter who doesn't want to take on the champion next!

Brawler Gene Fullmer, winner of a split decision over Rocky Castellani last night in a blood-splashed 10-rounder at Cleveland Arena, says he'd much prefer another crack at Argentina's Eduardo Lause to a middleweight title fight with Sugar Ray Robinson. Fullmer dropped a decision to Lause last November.

"I just don't like to have someone running around who has beaten me, that's all," he said.

'56 Golf Campaign Getting Start

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The 1956 golf campaign gets underway in a lighter mood today but the seasoned tournament professionals get down to serious work tomorrow in the $30,000 Los Angeles Open.

Today's prelude, a $2,500 amateur celebrity round, featured Ben Hogan and the young man who beat him out of his fifth United States open crown, Jack Fleck.

Hogan, Jimmy Demaret, actor Dennis O'Keefe and the tournament co-sponsor, Bill McDonald Jr., made up one foursome.

Fleck, Doug Ford, comedian Phil Harris and baseball's Del Webb were in another group.

Wild Chase in Cars

of gasoline he had stolen from the Kessler premises, for the two cans were found in the car after Featherston was arrested.

When the two deputies pulled up alongside the parked car, the driver, then unknown to the two officers, started his car and dashed wildly down Route 70 toward Washington C. H.

THE FUGITIVE was "flying" and when he attempted to force the officers off the road, they radioed ahead for the police to set up a road block.

Policeman Rodman Scott drove hurriedly up North Street and blocked the street.

When the fugitive roared down North Street with the deputies close by, he skidded against the police cruiser as he swung from North Street into Gregg at approximately 70 miles an hour, climbed the curb, crossed a sidewalk, ran upon a lawn but went back into the street and was fleeing eastward on Gregg, with both cruisers in hot pursuit.

At Blackstone Avenue, Featherston turned south to Columbus Avenue, then headed toward Columbus with the car dashing at top speed and the two cruisers following.

Several times when Patrolman Scott attempted to get alongside of Featherston, he swung over against the police cruiser. It was during one of these times, the police said, that the cars became locked together while traveling at top speed. The cruiser was damaged an estimated $200.

It was when the three cars raced out the Columbus Road at terrific speed, Deputy Mickle fired three shots at the fleeing car.

AFTER BEING brought to the county jail, Featherston at first refused to talk but later made a full confession to Sheriff Hays.

Sheriff Hays said charges of auto theft had been filed against Featherston, who was to be taken before Juvenile Judge R. L. Brubaker later in the day with request that he be certified to the common pleas court for indictment by the grand jury. This move was taken, it was explained, with a view to having him sent to the state reformatory, where escape is not as easy as from the Boys' Industrial School.

It was pointed out that several other charges could be placed against Featherston as result of his wild escapade Wednesday night, including theft of gasoline, reckless operation, resisting arrest and endeavoring to kill or maim the officers by trying to force them into a roadside ditch.

Six Rules For Traffic Safety

January Bad Month For Accidents

Pointing out that January is usually a bad month for traffic accidents, Police Chief Vaiden Long gives six rules that, if observed, would materially reduce the number of accidents.

These rules are:
(1.) Accept your responsibility, don't blame the weather man for the accident when you are the only one that can keep your car out of difficulty. Change your driving habits to provide increased caution in bad weather.

(2.) Use good tires whether you use the regular or the snow variety. Be sure they have plenty of tread and good condition, and when the snow is deep or ice is slick depend on chains.

(3.) Keep the glass of your car clean, get the snow and ice off of the windshield and other windows. Remember that you have to see danger to avoid it, and danger can approach from the sides or the rear as well as from the front. Make sure your windshield wiper is working.

(4.) Get the feel of the road by trying your brakes occasionally while driving at a moderate speed where traffic is light. Find out just how slippery the road is and adjust your speed accordingly.

(5.) Follow at a safe distance. Remember that it takes 3 to 12 times as far to stop on snow and ice as on dry pavement. Give yourself plenty of room, staying well back of the car ahead.

(6.) Pump your brakes on snow and ice for quick stops and full control of your car. Jamming brakes locks the wheels and you can neither steer or stop.

The Chief issued a word of warning to ice skaters. "It requires at least 72 hours of temperatures below freezing to produce ice that is safe to bear the weight of a moving person, he said. If the water happens to be moving or alive it takes even longer. Youngsters are warned also about coasting in areas where traffic is moving. Do your coasting away from motor vehicles. It is extremely dangerous to hook a ride behind a moving automobile.

Your sled has no brakes and at the speed of motor travel it's hard to steer. If the car should change direction or slow down you would crash into the car before you could prevent it.

Madison Mills PTO To Give Projector

A decision to give the school a motion picture projector and screen and a showing of photo slides of the Rose Bowl parade were the main order of business at a meeting Wednesday night of the Madison Mills Parent-Teachers Organization.

The group met at 8 P. M. in the school building. Beecher Ingram, president of the group, led the meeting. Lawrence Grim made the motion to present the movie equipment to the school. It was seconded by Mrs. Wilbur Snapp.

tion program will be submitted to Congress at this session.

Disaster assistance — Eisenhower said an experimental program of federal flood damage insurance should be started, and that he would offer detailed recommendations later.

Area redevelopment — The President said he will submit later a program of federal technical and loan assistance to communities for redeveloping chronic unemployment areas.

Social welfare — Eisenhower proposed extending old age and survivors' insurance programs to additional workers; increased child welfare services; and a considerable increase amount of federal aid to medical research.

He said, too, provision should be made "by federal reinsurance or otherwise" for extending voluntary health insurance coverage—particularly among older persons and those in rural areas.

Labor management — Eisenhower said he will propose legislation to assure "adequate disclosure of the financial affairs of each employee pension and welfare plan and to afford substantial protection to their beneficiaries."

He also called anew for broadening of minimum wage law coverage and for strengthening eight-hour laws for workers subject to federal wage standards on federal and federally assisted construction and other public works.

Jeffersonville Lions Gather

Speaker Heard, New Events Discussed

The first Jeffersonville Lions Club meeting of the year 1956 was complete with guest speaker, resume of Christmas activities and discussion of several coming Lion events.

Dan Paul, Beaver Creek Lions Club member and chairman of that zone, spoke on the qualifications necessary for a good Lion.

Eldon Long, president of the Jeff Club, gave a review of Christmas activities of the group. The Lions put up decorative lights in the business section of town, as they have in the past.

In cooperation with the management of the Jeffersonville Theater, the Lions sponsored a free movie for the children of the community. About 350 youngsters turned out for the film and gifts of candy, fruit and nuts.

CHRISTMAS certificates for food were given to 19 needy families in the community. A portion of the cost was shared with the Lions by a Jeffersonville Methodist Church Sunday School class, the Jeffersonville Grange and several individuals in the community.

Members were reminded at the meeting that the monthly benefit euchre party, formerly held the third Thursday of the month, would hereafter be held the first Thursday of each month. Including January—this month's party, open to the public, is to be held at the Lions Club Hall this Thursday evening.

Lester Allen and Carl Stackhouse will serve as hosts for the party. Jan. 31 the four Fayette County Lions Clubs—from Washington C. H., Good Hope, Bloomington and Jeffersonville—will hold their annual get-together at the Country Club here.

He said, too, provision should be made "by federal reinsurance or otherwise" for extending voluntary health insurance coverage—particularly among older persons and those in rural areas.

Labor management — Eisenhower said he will propose legislation to assure "adequate disclosure of the financial affairs of each employee pension and welfare plan and to afford substantial protection to their beneficiaries."

He also called anew for broadening of minimum wage law coverage and for strengthening eight-hour laws for workers subject to federal wage standards on federal and federally assisted construction and other public works.

Jeffersonville Lions Gather

Speaker Heard, New Events Discussed

The first Jeffersonville Lions Club meeting of the year 1956 was complete with guest speaker, resume of Christmas activities and discussion of several coming Lion events.

Dan Paul, Beaver Creek Lions Club member and chairman of that zone, spoke on the qualifications necessary for a good Lion.

Eldon Long, president of the Jeff Club, gave a review of Christmas activities of the group. The Lions put up decorative lights in the business section of town, as they have in the past.

In cooperation with the management of the Jeffersonville Theater, the Lions sponsored a tree movie for the children of the community. About 350 youngsters turned out for the film and gifts of candy, fruit and nuts.

CHRISTMAS certificates for food were given to 19 needy families in the community. A portion of the cost was shared with the Lions by a Jeffersonville Methodist Church Sunday School class, the Jeffersonville Grange and several individuals in the community.

Members were reminded at the meeting that the monthly benefit euchre party, formerly held the third Thursday of the month, would hereafter be held the first Thursday of each month. Including January—this month's party, open to the public, is to be held at the Lions Club Hall this Thursday evening.

Lester Allen and Carl Stackhouse will serve as hosts for the party.

Jan. 31 the four Fayette County Lions Clubs—from Washington C. H., Good Hope, Bloomingburg and Jeffersonville—will hold their annual get-together at the Country Club here.
